

Alternative School Programs
(Senior Options)

The Board of Education endorses the concept of alternative educational experiences for senior class students who believe, together with their parents/guardians, that it is impractical to be in school full time when full time attendance is not necessary to meet graduation requirements. Senior options--including independent study; study in another educational institution; and work or volunteer service on a regular basis--will be permitted under guidelines established by the administration.r