

Gabriel grew up in Minneapolis, Minnesota and played high school football for De La Salle and Roseville High Schools. After high school he went on to play tight end and offensive line collegiately in Minnesota from 1994-1997. After his playing days were over Gabriel went on to join the U.S. Army where he served honorably as a combat medic from 1997-2004. After completing his time in the Army Gabriel went on to finish his degree from the University of Washington in Sociology. Prior to taking the head coaching position at Eagle Valley he was the Offensive/Defensive line coach at Missoula Sentinel High MT, Defensive Line coach at Frenchtown High School MT and Defensive Coordinator/Defensive Line coach at Corvallis High School MT. Coach Brown has five kids and two grandchildren Megan (28), Kelsey (24), Madi (22), Andre (7) and Marcus (5). He is married to Michelle Brown who is a Special Education Teacher at Eagle Valley High. This will be Coach Brown's 9th year coaching varsity high school football and his 1st as a Head Coach.